£725,000 Freehold EPC: Band C

 Maguire Baylis

Guide Price: £725,000 - £750,000. Maguire Baylis are pleased to present this stunning extended four-bedroom end-of-terrace townhouse, offering exceptionally spacious and beautifully presented family accommodation arranged over three floors.

A particular highlight is the impressive open-plan kitchen/family room, extended across the full width of the property to create a superb space for modern living and entertaining. Flooded with natural light from a large lantern roof light and featuring sliding pocket doors opening onto the garden, the room incorporates a stylish contemporary kitchen with quartz work surfaces, central island with breakfast bar and a comprehensive range of integrated appliances. A useful utility room provides additional storage and practicality for day-to-day family life.

The accommodation is arranged over three floors and includes a bright and airy first-floor living room offering panoramic views towards Beckenham Place Park, together with the principal bedroom, which benefits from a luxuriously appointed en-suite bathroom featuring a four-piece suite with oval bath and separate walk-in shower enclosure. There are three further double bedrooms plus a contemporary family bathroom serving the upper floors.

Outside, the beautifully landscaped tiered rear garden is a standout feature, thoughtfully designed with terraces, level lawned area with raised beds and established planting, creating an attractive and private outdoor space. To the front, the property benefits from a driveway providing off-street parking for two vehicles together with useful garage storage.

The property enjoys a quiet sought-after residential setting, conveniently located within easy reach of Ravensbourne and Shortlands stations, Bromley town centre and the open spaces of Beckenham Place Park. Nearby schools include the well-regarded Valley & Harris Primary schools in Shortlands.
