

4 Broadwater 114a Bromley Road

Beckenham, BR3 5NU

£400,000 Share of Freehold EPC: Band B

 Maguire Baylis

Guide Price: £400,000 - £425,000. Maguire Baylis are pleased to present this superb first floor apartment, forming part of an attractive modern development of just seven flats and offered to the market with the benefit of a chain free sale.

The property provides bright and spacious accommodation throughout, with particular emphasis on the impressive double aspect living room which enjoys excellent natural light and opens directly onto a private south-facing balcony overlooking the well-maintained communal grounds. A fully integrated fitted kitchen is thoughtfully arranged and finished to a high standard, complementing the living space perfectly.

There are two generous double bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with en suite shower room, together with a separate modern bathroom serving the remainder of the accommodation.

Externally, the development is set within attractive landscaped gardens and benefits from gated private parking, providing both security and convenience.

The location is a key feature, being just yards from a range of local shops and amenities, whilst also offering easy access to Beckenham High Street with its excellent selection of restaurants, cafés and leisure facilities. Beckenham Junction station and tram services are also within easy reach, providing excellent transport links into Central London and beyond.

A superb apartment in a highly convenient location, ideal for professionals, downsizers or buy-to-let investors alike.
